

WILLIAM LANGBOURNE'S HEIRS.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. RANDOLPH, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to whom was referred the petition of the heirs of William Langbourne, deceased, report :

That William Langbourne was an aid to the Marquis de la Fayette, and as such served till towards the close of the revolutionary war ; but there being no evidence that he was an officer commissioned by Congress, and thereby entitled to commutation pay, the committee report against the prayer of the petition.

Blair & Rives, printers.

WILLIAM LANGBOURNE HEIRS

MARCH 5, 1840

Read and laid upon the table

Mr. Langbourn, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following report:

REPORT

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to whom was referred the petition of the heirs of William Langbourn, deceased, report:

That William Langbourn was an aid to the Marquis de la Fayette, and as such served till towards the close of the revolutionary war; but there being no evidence that he was an officer commissioned by Congress, and thereby entitled to commutation pay, the committee report against the prayer of the petition.

Blair & Rives, printers.